

Indiana Department of Homeland Security

We have damages, what do we do?

- First contact your local Emergency Management Agency to report any damages. You can find your EMA contact information at www.in.gov/dhs Under online services go to Indiana Homeland Security Districts Map
- Contact your insurance company and make sure you take pictures before starting any clean up.

I have lost everything I have, where do I go?

- Contact your local Red Cross office at 1-866-GET-INFO (438-4636) or other volunteer organizations in your community.

What is disaster assistance?

- Disaster assistance is money or direct assistance to individuals, families and businesses in an area whose property has been damaged or destroyed and whose losses are not covered by insurance. It is meant to help you with critical expenses that cannot be covered in other ways. This assistance is not intended to restore your damaged property to its condition before the disaster.

How do I register for disaster assistance?

- You can register on line at 1-800-632-FEMA (3362), 1-800-462-7585 for the people with speech or hearing disabilities; or register on line at www.fema.gov/assistance/register.shtm

What should I do after I've completed my application?

- FEMA will mail you a copy of your application and an application guide that will answer many of your questions. An inspector will contact you and after the inspection you may be asked to fill out additional forms.
